It is our tradition to place lilies and tulips as the cross on Easter morning.

Please plan to bring flowers on Easter morning to place on the altar on Easter. If you plan to bring a flower, please notify the church office prior to or during Holy Week if you are bringing the flower in honor or memory of a loved one. Your honorariums and memorials will be printed in the handout on Easter morning and the newsletter that week.

We lift up these names to God, in hopes that their needs will be met:

FCC BOOK CLUB

We would like to thank all who participated in last week's discussion and special thanks to Elinor Rambo for leading the discussion!

The next meeting will be May 1st at 2:00 pm via Zoom. The chosen book is "The Great Alone" by Kristin Hannah.

We hope you will be able to join us next month! If you have any questions or need help getting a copy of the book, please contact the church office.

The 24th Annual Flying Pig Marathon is coming through our church's neighborhood on May 1st! As many of you know, the marathon is part of a not-for-profit organization with a primary goal of raising money for local charities, and has raised $17 million—100% of which has gone directly to the charities they support!

There will be road closures on 4th Street and on the Clay Wade Bailey bridge at the start of the marathon (6:30 AM), however the runners are estimated to be passed these areas by 8:00 AM. This means there should be no impact to our congregation on their way into church that morning.

If you would like to review the road closures and other impacted areas, you can check their website at www.flyingpigmarathon.com.

PRAYER FOR UKRAINE

The below was sent out from the Christian Church in Kentucky:

"Ever Loving God,
Today we are filled with many emotions in response to the Russian invasion of Ukraine. Humanity has once again chosen selfishness and death, when we know You to be the God of abundance and life.
We are filled with grief for the lives lost and the senselessness of killing. We grieve, too, for those who have been and will be driven from their homes or made to suffer by the cruelties of violence. God, be with those who mourn today and those whose days of mourning are yet to come. May they feel our hearts reaching out to theirs in sorrow and in love.

Breathe your peace into our own fear and anxiety, as our minds are racing or frozen by thoughts of what this will mean for the world that should be at peace. Give us grace and comfort in these times of uncertainty.

Make your presence known to those feeling angry or hopeless, those filled with righteous frustration at injustice and those overwhelmed by despair. May you guide our energy towards productive engagement in service of those who are most impacted.

Whatever feelings or situation God, we ask that through it all you would remain with us. Remain with those who are in deep mourning and in need of your comfort. Be present with leaders around the world, that they may know your wisdom and peace. Be with the church as we discern our own path forward in response to a world in desperate need of your peace, your love, and your hope.

We ask these prayers in the name of your son, the Prince of Peace, Jesus Christ, Amen."
