FCC Book Club Details

We are blessed to have an active book club here at FCC and would love if you would join in!

This month's selection is "The Things We Do for Love" by Kristin Hannah. StoryGraph describes it as "ideal for readers who appreciate emotionally layered stories about complex family dynamics and the transformative power of unexpected connections, exploring themes of love, resilience, and rebuilding lives." The New York Times says that "The Things We Do For Love" is "a poignant, evocative story that celebrates the magic of motherhood, the joys of coming home, and the price we so willingly pay for love."

Our club will meet on Sunday, April 27th via Zoom to discuss this book. If you would like to be added to our Book Club email list for reminder emails and access to the Zoom link, please contact the church office.

Take the Ash Wednesday Declaration!

As you may know, CWS recently launched the Ash Wednesday Ecumenical Declaration: Defending Refuge as a way to stand alongside our refugee and immigrant neighbors. It's a pledge to take faithful action—to pray, to advocate and to uphold the biblical call to welcome.

Whether you've already signed the declaration or are hearing about it for the first time, this is your chance to turn faith into compassionate action.

That's why I'm inviting you to an important webinar on Tuesday April 8, at 3:00PM EDT where faith communities will be equipped with practical ways to support refugees and immigrants.

Register Here Beyond the Signature Webinar

During this special webinar, hosted by CWS President and CEO Rick Santos, you'll hear from CWS Director of Policy along with faith leaders across the country, who are living out their bold commitment to welcome refugees—and learn how you can, too.

Guest speakers include:

- Danilo Zak, Director of Policy at CWS
- Bishop Minerva G. Carcaño, United Methodist Church, Sacramento, CA
- Claremont UCC, Claremont, CA
- Catonsville Presbyterian, Baltimore, MD

In addition to this power-packed panel, you'll receive a quick guide with links to key resources, advocacy contacts and support tools.

I hope you'll be able to join us!

In Faith and Action,

Rebekah Belase, Church World Service
