To The Congregation

Thank you all so much for coming to our celebration May 18! It was a wonderful occasion made even more special by you being there to help us celebrate. And we were humbled by your generous monetary gift to us (which will be put to good use in Vienna this July, by the way). We are profoundly grateful for the many years of friendship and love you have shown us these past 40 (gasp!) years and we treasure those gifts above all others.

Randy and Brett

Did You Know... ?

... you can donate to the church just by buying your normal groceries?!

We have been partnering with Kroger for many years as part of their Community Rewards Program. Folks who have Kroger Rewards for fuel points can also designate that a portion of spending be donated to a non-profit of their choice! You can select First Christian Church in Covington to receive the donations from your purchases and give to the church without having to spend an extra dime!

Go to <https://www.kroger.com/i/community/community-rewards> for more information and learn how to link your Kroger Rewards to First Christian Church to receive donations!

Pride Multifaith Celebration Details

We have proudly been part of the Pride Multifaith Celebration for several years now. Though we were unable to be able to participate and support during the planning phase of the event this year, we are still welcome and encouraged to join the event!

The theme this year is Embracing Divine Diversity with keynote speaker, Rev. Derek Terry, and several musical performances from acts including the Cincinnati Men's Chorus and Cincinnati Women's Chorus. Rev. Terry is the acting Executive Director of the Open & Affirming Coalition and also serves as Pastor at St. Peter's UCC in Pleasant Ridge.

This event is handicap accessible and will have sign language interpreters available. Please join the celebration on Thursday, June 26th at First United Church of Christ, 5808 Glenview Avenue. Doors open at 6:30 pm; event begins at 7 pm.

This event is free to attend.
