From the Pastor's Desk

Greetings From The Pastor's Desk:

Thank you for a few days off to celebrate our 20th wedding anniversary and my birthday! I really appreciate everyone's attendance and participation in our combined worship and potluck at the end of August. Thank you all!

When I look at our calendar for September I realize I must have been suffering from delusions of grandeur to think we could also fit in asset mapping this month. I think we should meet in early October for mapping. That way, we can all concentrate on the baptism service on the 13th and the Blessing of the Pets at Devou Park on the 27th?

Remember this Sunday the 13th we will worship at Bullittsville at 11:15 to support the newly baptized and share a meal afterwards. We are encouraged to bring a side/salad/dessert but it is not mandatory.

We are a go for the Pet Blessing on Sunday at the Michael Breaden picnic shelter at Devou park. Worship starts at 11 AM. Bullittsville will join us! All leashed pets are welcome (but not mandatory).

Thank you for making my childhood friend, Craig, feel so welcomed in service last Sunday. He really enjoyed the service and getting to meet y'all!

If you or anyone you know is in need of pastoral care please do not hesitate to call/email/text.

Peace Be Unto Y'all
Rev. Dan
